DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: This is a one year traineeship designed to instruct incumbents for work in a municipal personnel office. The position is para-professional in nature and performs employee reporting and transactions duties, which are complex and require a high degree of accuracy. The work involves frequent public contact, often dealing with problems related to personnel functions such as hiring, terminations, confidential questionnaire review, etc. The position differs from clerical positions in that the incumbent would be expected to learn, apply and answer questions concerning the more routine aspects of the various laws, rules, policies and procedures of a personnel office. An incumbent must serve one year in the trainee title, attain permanent appointment in the trainee title and successfully complete the probationary period in accordance with Civil Service rules, in order to be considered for promotion to the full performance position of Personnel Assistant. Upon satisfaction of these requirements, an incumbent is promoted to the title of Personnel Assistant without further competitive examination. Supervision is received from, and more complex questions are referred to, the Personnel Analyst or other higher level title in charge of the work unit. Supervision may be exercised over the work of subordinate clerical personnel. Does related work as required.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: Written test will cover knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in such areas as:

Customer service

These questions test for knowledge of techniques used to interact with other people, to gather and present information, and to provide assistance, advice and effective customer service in a courteous and professional manner. Questions will cover such topics as understanding and responding to people with diverse needs, perspectives, personalities, and levels of familiarity with agency operations, as well as acting in a way that both serves the public and reflects well on your agency.

Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

Understanding and interpreting written material

These questions test for the ability to understand and interpret written material. You will be presented with brief reading passages and will be asked questions about the passages. You should base your answers to the questions only on what is presented in the passages and not on what you may happen to know about the topic.

The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication 'General Guide to Written Tests' helpful in preparing for this test. For eligible lists established after January 1, 2014, disabled veterans may be entitled to additional credits on a civil service examination. Every situation is different. If you have specific questions or concerns, please contact our office.
