DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: The work involves the responsibility for serving as Chief of the Detective Unit performing specialized police work. The work involves the responsibility for supervising investigative functions of the Detective Unit within the Sheriff's Department including overseeing and participating in the investigation of crimes, offenses and violations of law. This includes directing and coordinating the activities of Detectives engaged in investigations and Detectives assigned to interagency task forces who work in areas of specific crimes. The work involves a considerable amount of verbal interaction and communication with offenders, victims, witnesses, attorneys, judges and court personnel. This requires a person in this position to show substantive diplomacy, empathy and discernment in varying situations. The class of Detective Lieutenant differs from the class of Detective Sergeant by the increased responsibility of supervisory and administrative duties, internal affairs investigations and the handling of highly confidential matters. Additionally, a Detective Lieutenant represents the department in high profile cases as the ranking authority. The work is performed under the general supervision of the Deputy Sheriff Captain or higher-ranking titles with wide latitude and discretion being given to perform appropriate investigations and interrogations. Does related work as required.
