DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: This is specialized work involving the responsibility of gathering criminal intelligence, generally from the Ulster County Jail, social media, SAR reports, the dark web, Department of Corrections, high intensity drug trafficking areas (HIDTA) and other law enforcement agencies. The responsibilities also include plain clothed officers gathering facts and collecting evidence for narcotics and/or gang cases for the purpose of arrest and conviction of offenders. This includes intelligence gathering from inmates, conducting surveillance and debriefing confidential informants, and investigating incidents and offenses including but not limited to the sale of controlled substances, illegal possession and/or sale of firearms, illegal gang activity, overdose death cases, violent felony offenses and internet crime offenses. An incumbent will be assigned to interagency task forces who work in areas of specific crimes, including drug enforcement. The work involves a considerable amount of verbal interaction and communication with offenders, informants, victims, witnesses, attorneys, judges and court personnel. This requires a person in this position to show substantive diplomacy, empathy and discernment in varying situations. The work is performed under the general supervision of a higher-level employee with latitude and discretion being given to perform appropriate investigations and interrogations. Does related work as required.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: Written test will cover knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in such areas as:

Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

Understanding and interpreting written material

These questions test for the ability to understand and interpret written material. You will be presented with brief reading passages and will be asked questions about the passages. You should base your answers to the questions only on what is presented in the passages and not on what you may happen to know about the topic.

Advanced investigative techniques

These questions test for knowledge of the more complicated and technical aspects of field investigations. The questions will cover such areas as: interviewing principles and practices, investigative principles, sources of information and reporting methods commonly used in field investigations, securing statements, rules of evidence and evidence collection, preparing cases for court or legal hearings, and testifying in the courtroom or in hearings. Many of the questions are situational in nature. The questions are generic rather than dealing with investigations in a particular field.

Evaluating information and evidence

These questions test the candidates' abilities to evaluate and draw conclusions from information and evidence. Each question consists of a set of facts and a conclusion based on the facts. The candidate must decide if a conclusion is warranted by the facts.

Test guide:

A Guide for the Written Test for Investigators is available at the New York State website: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>.
