

PROJECTS MANAGER II

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: The work involves the responsibility of performing duties related to all county construction projects, including in-house projects and those executed by private contractors. The position is also responsible for assisting in the coordination of building security systems, computerized climate control systems and preventative maintenance contract compliance. The work is performed under the general supervision of the Senior Projects Manager, Maintenance Coordinator and Commissioner of Buildings and Grounds with leeway allowed for the use of independent judgement in carrying out the details of the work. Supervision is exercised over the work of others engaged in functions related to project construction and building maintenance and building maintenance contracts. Does related work as required.

TYPICAL WORK ACTIVITIES: The typical work activities listed below, while providing representative examples of the variety of work assignments in the title do not describe any individual position. Incumbents in this title may perform some or all of the following as well as other related activities not described.

Inspects work in progress to ensure that the work is being performed according to code, timetables, plans and specifications, and identifies and reports on deficiencies;

Drafts plans and specifications and recommends revisions of specifications or schedules in order to meet existing needs;

Inspects construction materials to ensure specification compliance and to identify and report any deficiencies;

Inspects projects, reports on same and maintains records;

Responds to any fire, burglar or environmental alarms that occur on county property;

Assists in designing, instructing, monitoring, reviewing and maintaining alarm codes, security passes and system inter-connections between security and building computerized systems;

Assists in maintaining building access systems, including distribution and maintenance of key distribution list, as well as corresponding security system codes and their correlation;

Assists in maintaining computerized temperature control systems operation for county buildings, and programming of same, as well as engineering of approval of new systems;

Helps supervise a preventative maintenance program for all mechanical components of completed county buildings and ensures that service contracts are properly executed;

Assists in instructing necessary county personnel in use of computerized temperature control systems;

Helps provide analysis of departmental needs, planning for interdepartmental activities, including but not limited to moves and scheduling of non-construction aspects of same;

Reviews vouchers from contractors prior to submission for payment to ensure they are accurate;

Attends meetings as necessary and as directed.

FULL PERFORMANCE, KNOWLEDGES, SKILLS, ABILITIES AND PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS: Thorough knowledge of modern building construction materials, methods and equipment; thorough knowledge of commercial building heating, ventilation, air balance and air conditioning systems and the ability to troubleshoot same; good knowledge of electrical systems; good knowledge of various computer systems and programs utilized in building construction and maintenance; ability to read, understand and interpret plans, specifications and blueprints; ability to carry out oral and written directions; ability to present ideas clearly, both orally and in writing; ability to solve construction-related problems; ability to deal effectively with and secure the cooperation of others; resourcefulness in the solution of administrative problems; reliability; sound judgement; tact; courtesy; physical condition commensurate with the demands of the position.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Either:

- A. Graduation from a regionally accredited or New York State recognized college or university with a Bachelor's Degree in Engineering, Architecture or related field and five (5) years of responsible supervisory experience in the construction of large projects, institutional buildings or related work; OR
- B. Possession of a high school diploma or a high school equivalency diploma and nine (9) years of responsible supervisory experience in the construction of large projects, institutional buildings or related work; OR
- C. An equivalent combination of training and experience as indicated in A and B above.

ULSTER COUNTY
5152 PRJ MGR II
Classification: Competitive
5153 PMII HLP
Classification: Non-Competitive
Grade: 18
Union: CSEA

Adopted: August 9, 2002